NOTICE.

AN advertisement appeared in the Alexandria paper on or about the month of March, 1807, signed by John Thomas Ricketts, William Newton, and John Mills, jun.
mentioning that the copartnership of Ricketts, Newton & Co. was dissolved, and desiring all persons indebted to said copartnership
to make payment, and those who had claims to make application to William Newton, as he was authorised to settle the affairs of said firm, or words to that effect—

Now be it known, that for good and weighty reasons I do hereby withdraw the authorisation from William Newton, to collect the debts and settle the affairs of the firm of Ricketts, Newton and Co. and I prohibit any person or persons indebted to the copartnership of Ricketts, Newton and Co. from making payment to William Newton or to John Thomas Ricketts, jointly or severally; and that any person or persons who shall make any payment or settlement with William Newton or John Thomas Ricketts, with both or either of them, jointly or severally, will act at their own risk and peril.

CONCLUDED.

French and Spanish brandy, gin, olives: some in market, and small consumption.

Prunes, figs, raisins, currants, almonds, filberts: small quantity would sell well.

Saffron: not used.

Writing paper: low priced Spanish or Italian, and some floret, would sell well, but of English great plenty in market.

Empty bottles: good article.

Cordials: small quantity.

Dutch liquor cases: good article.

Fruits in brandy: very few.

Bologna Sausages: good article.

Sewing twine: proper for sails—good article—for packing, and also for sails, that of the country is much used, made from the plant
picun, and of cotton.

Duties 24 per cent. on tariff of valuation.

100 reas—a testoon.

10 testoons—a milrea.

1 milrea—$1 25 at $300 reas to the dollar.

Articles of export from St. Salvador, and Rio Janeiro, and present prices.

Sugar: present prices at St. Salvador and Rio Janeiro 14 a 600 reas per arroba: whites and browns in about equal proportion—whites are subdivided into six, and browns into three different qualities, and the prices invariably descend 1 testoon, or 12 1/2 cents on each quality. They are from the highest to the most inferior—no charge is made for boxes, which average from 40 to 50 arrobes in weight.

Tobacco: present prices at St. Salvador 12
a 800 reas per arroba, at Rio Janeiro none exported—two qualities, approved and rejected, the latter being mostly sent to the coast of Africa and the former to Europe, is twisted
and made up of large rolls of 15 arrobes—
none exported in the leaf, and quality of the last inferior to Virginia.

Cotton: present prices at St. Salvador 5400
reas per arroba, at Rio Janeiro 2,400 a 6,000.
That raised in the district of Rio very inferior,
but some is brought thither from the mine provinces packed in cærns of good quality, and that of St. Salvador is also good.

Drigd Hides: present prices at St. Salvador 65 a 70 reas per lb. at Rio Janeiro 55 a 60; are brought chiefly from Rio Grande and Buenos Ayres.

Salted hides: present prices at St. Salvador
1,500 reas each, at Rio Janeiro 1,200.

Sole leather: present price at St. Salvador
1,200 reas per side, at Rio Janeiro 1,300; inferior.

Taffia: present price at St. Salvador and Rio Janeiro, 40,000 reas per pipe, quality inferior.

Rice: present price at St. Salvador, 1,600
reas per alquier, at Rio Janeiro 4,600 per sack
of 6 arrobes; quality inferior.

Coffee: present price at Salvador 2,560
reas per arroba, at Rio Janeiro 2,600; good quality, particularly at Rio, from whence is the chief export of this article.

Cabinet Woods: at St. Salvador some, at Rio Janeiro none; are too dear to ship to the United States, and none equal to mahogany,
which is not produced.

Ship timber: at St. Salvador some, at Rio Janeiro none; also too dear.

Tallow: present price at St. Salvador 1,250
reas per arroba, at Rio Janeiro 2,000; bro't
from Rio Grande and Buenos Ayres.

Junk beef: present price at St. Salvador
800 reas per arroba, at Rio Janeiro 600; bro't
from Rio Grande and Buenos Ayres.

Pepper: present price at St. Salvador 160
reas per lb. at Rio Janeiro none; produced at St. Salvador.

Whale oil: present price at St. Salvador 160 reas per gallon, at Rio Janeiro none;
from fishery on the coast, 800 pipes on hand.

Ginger: some produced at St. Salvador,
none at Rio.

Brazil wood: present price at St. Salvador

3,200 reas per qtl. at Rio Janeiro none; is under monopoly; permission for cutting and exporting 6,000 quintals has been granted to a person in St. Salvador.

Indigo: at St. Salvador none, present price at Rio Janeiro 320 a 700 reas per lb.—three qualities, all inferior.

Cocoa: some exported from St. Salvador.

Cochineal: some exported from Rio.

Turtle Shell: some from both places.

Molasses: very little hitherto exported.

Arrotto: some exported from Rio.

Iheccuanha: present price at Rio Janeiro
640 reas per lb. plenty at Rio.

Spanish dollars: present prices at St. Salvador and Rio Janeiro 750 reas each; six and a quarter per cent. below par.

Tepaz, Amathyes: present price at Rio Janeiro 300 a 1200 reas per oitave—all carried from the mines to Rio.

Diamonds: all carried from the mines to Rio, and under monopoly.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

An oitave—128 makes a pound.

An arroba—32 pounds, or 33 English.

A quintal—4 arrobes, or 182 do.

An alquier—three and a half of Lisbon, or about one and a third English bushel.

N. B. It has been impossible to put prices to all the articles of import or export, either from their scarcity or glut in the market.

The exports of St. Salvador are estimated at about four millions of dollars. and those of Rio at five millions, which exceeds their consumption of foreign goods, and consequently leaves a balance in their favor.

HENRY HILL.

CONGRESS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

NON-INTERCOURSE.

The house again in committee of the whole.

Mr. BASSETT in the chair;

On the bill from the Senate, for the inter-
dicting commercial intercourse, &c.

Mr. Holland thought it would be better at once to withdraw all our measures, to undo every thing that had been done, than to adopt the gentleman's amendment. Of all others the system of arming our merchant vessels was the most futile that could be conceived. The merchants would again come forward and call upon the government to take up the cause. And was the government again to be duped by them? No; for if the government had done wrong, in his opinion it was by going too far for the support of commerce; and their efforts were rewarded by the exclamations of the same people who by their cries had induced the government so to do. Sooner than again attempt to protect them, if they deserted their own cause, he would leave commerce and the rights of the seas to the mercy of the winds and waves. He would repeal all our discriminating duties and drawbacks;
that the merchants should be hereafter precisely on the same footing as foreign merchants.

The question was then taken on Mr.
Cook's motion and negatived 50 to 45.

Mr. Marion moved to amend the bill by striking out the fourth day of March, and inserting the 15th day of March, as the day
on which the partial repeal of the embargo should take date, and thus to place all the ports in the union on an equality. Negatived 56 to 45.

The bill was then read through.

Mr. D. R. Williams enquired whether the bill extending credit on revenue bonds
the continuance of which depends on the continuance of the embargo, would be continued after the passage of this law.

Mr. Nicholas said he could only state his individual opinion that it would be still in force.

Mr. D. R. Williams asked whether it had been considered expedient by the committee of Foreign Relations that that bill should continue in force hereafter?

Mr. Nicholas replied that the committee had not had the subject under consideration.

The committee then rose and reported
the bill as amended.

Mr. W. Alston hoped that the house would not now consider the report but take up the appropriation bill for the navy.

The house agreed, however, now to consider the report. Ayes 60.

The amendment made in the committee,
by striking out all that part of the bill relating to letters of marque and reprisal, being read, was concurred in as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Alexander, W. Alston,
Bacon, Barker, Bibb, Blackledge, Blake,
Blount, Boyd, Butler, Champion, Cook, Cul-
pepper, Dana, Davenport, Durell, Eliot, Ely, Eppes, Findley, Franklin, Garnett, Gholson, Goodwyn, Harris, Helms, Humphreys, Isley, R. S. Jackson, Jones, Kelly, Kenan, Lambert, Lewis, Livermore, Lloyd,
Lyon, Macon, Marion, Masters, Milnor, John Morrow, Moseley, Mumford, Newbold, Pugh, Quincy, Randolph, Riker, Rowan, Sloan, J. K. Smith, S. Smith, Southard, Stanford, Stedman, Storer, Sturges, Swart,
Taggart, Tallmadge, Thompson, Upham,
Van Allen, Van Cortlandt, Van Dyke, Van Horn, Van Rennselaer, Verplanck, Whitehill, Wilbour, D. R. Williams, M. Wil-ams, N. Wilson—74.

NAYS—Messrs. Bard, Bassett, Boyle,
Brown, Calhoun, Clay, Cuts, Deane, Desha, Fisk, Green, Holland, Holmes, Johnson Love, McCreery, J. Montgomery, N.
R. Moore, T. Moore, Newton, Nicholas,
Porter, Rea, (Penn.) Rea, (Ten.) J. Richards,
M. Richards, Say, Seaver, Smith, J. Smith,
Taylor, A. Wilson, Winn—33.

Mr. Gholson moved to strike out the 4th day of March and insert the 20th May as the time at which the partial repeal of the embargo should take date. He said he had taken this day in preference to the 1st day of June, which he had before moved, because it would give an indubitable pledge to the people that the repeal should take place,
by fixing on a period anterior to the convocation of the next Congress for the commencement of the operation of the law. If the non-intercourse system was to be a substitute for the embargo, why should there be an interval from the 4th of March till the 20th of May? It was a recession for such a time from our ground without any interposing measure. He called upon gentlemen to shew to him, that it was not receding, that it was not submission.

Mr. Lyon said that the nation was tired enough of the embargo, and he hoped that they would not continue it any longer.

Mr. Boyd rose to observe to those wishing in his hearing that he was not willing to submit to the dictates of Great Britain or France, nor of any gentleman on the floor,
and that he despised denunciations come from whence they would.

Mr. Macon moved to strike out all that part of the bill relating to the repeal of the embargo, which motion superseded that of Mr. Gholson.

The question was then taken on Mr. Macon's motion by Yeas and Nays as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Bard, Bassett, Bibb,
Blackledge, Blount, Boyle, Calhoun, Clay, Deane, Desha, Franklin, Holmes, Howard, J. G. Jackson, Johnson, Kenan, Macon, Marion, J. Montgomery, Newbold, Porter, Rea, (Penn.) Rea, (Ten.) Say,
Smith, Stanford, Taylor, Troup, Verplanck
Whitehill, D. R. Williams, Winn. 32.

NAYS—Messrs. Alexander, W. Alston, Bacon, Barker, Blake, Boyd, Brown, Butler, Champion, Chittenden, Cook, Culpepper, Cuts, Dana, Davenport, Durell, Eliot, Ely, Eppes, Findley, Fisk, Good-
wyn, Green, Harris, Heister, Humphreys, Helms, Hoge, Isley, R. S. Jackson, Jenkins, Jones, Kelly, Lambert, Lewis, Livermore, Lloyd, Love, Lyon, Masters, McCreery, Milnor, N. R. Moore, T.
Moore, Moseley, Mumford, Nicholas,
Newton, Quincy, Randolph, J. Richards,
M. Richards, Riker, Rowan, Russell, Sawyer, Seaver, Sloan, J. K. Smith, J. Smith, S. Smith, Southard, Stedman, Storer, Stur-
ges, Swart, Taggart, Tallmadge, Thompson, Upham, Van Allen, Van Cortlandt,
Van Dyke, Van Horn, Van Rennselaer, Wilbour, M. Williams, N. Wilson. 82.

The question recurring on Mr. Gholson's motion, a division of the question was called for, so as to take the question first on striking out the words "4th of March."

Messrs. Macon, J. G. Jackson & Troup advocated a protraction of the date. It would be the greatest injustice to the ports
at a distance from the seat of government
not to give notice of the passage of the law, and was in the face of the provision of the constitution, which would require equal privileges to every port. Messrs. Masters, Randolph and Quincy contended for an early or immediate repeal of the embargo was original notice; that if our products, it ought to be exported and that the people of Canada should have an opportunity to

of the honest part of our citizens. The question on striking out 66 to 47.

Mr. J. G. Jackson moved that part of the bill giving
power to raise the embargo,
in case of the belligerents an-
to render the commerce of sufficiently safe; to make w

It to the ports government e of the law, ision of the quire equal rs. Masters, ided for an early or immediate repeal on the ground that the embargo was originally laid with- out notice; that if our produce was export- ed, it ought to be exported immediately; and that the people of Canada or the smug- glers at Amelia Island or elsewhere should not have an opportunity to take advantage of the honest part of our citizens. The question on striking out was nega- tively decided 65 to 47. Mr. J. G. Jackson moved to strike out that part of the bill giving the President power to raise the embargo, whenever the decrees of the belligerents are so modified as to render the commerce of the U. States sufficiently safe; to make way for the amendment which he yesterday offered au- thorising the President to issue letters of marque and reprisal against the power re- taining in force orders and decrees when- ever the other shall revoke its edicts. He observed that there could be no doubt that gentlemen would agree to strike out this clause whether they agree to insert the sub- stitute or not; for almost every member who had voted for striking out the clause relating to letters of marque and reprisal, had assigned as one great reason that it gave the President a legislative power, by making him judge of the events which might call into action that provision of the law. The same objection certainly attach- ed to that part of the section which he now proposed to strike out. The House adjourned, 60 to 35, without taking a question.

WEDNESDAY, March 1.

The bill from the senate making further provision for the corps of American engi- neers was read twice and referred to a com- mittee of the whole house this day.

The house went into committee of the whole on the bill supplementary to the act establishing certain trading houses with the Indians—Mr. W. Alston in the chair.

The committee rose and reported the bill with the amendments. The bill was order- ed to a third reading this day. Read a third time, and passed.

The house then went into committee of the whole on the bill to regulate the judicial processes in certain cases in the courts of the U. States.

The committee rose and reported the bill with amendments—The bill, with the amendments, was ordered to be engrossed for an immediate third reading—It was then read a third time and passed.

[An amendment to the above bill was proposed by Mr. Love, making provision for the staying of executions, on judgments rendered by the circuit and district courts of the U. S. in those states having in force laws authorising the staying of executions, in the same manner as if the judgment had been rendered in a court of such state.

The question on adopting this amend- ment was taken by ayes and noes, and lost—Ayes 25—Noes 67.]

The bill extending the time of payments on the public lands of the U. States, was read a third time and passed—Ayes 48.

The house went into committee of the whole on the bill for the relief of Jacob Barnitz.

The committee rose and reported the bill with amendment, granting 1000 dollars to said Barnitz. Ordered to be engrossed for a third reading this day—read a third time and passed.

The house went into committee of the whole on the bill appropriating money for completing the two wings of the capitol.

Mr. W. Alston moved to strike out all the appropriations except that for finishing the senate chamber.

Some conversation took place upon this motion which was lost.

The committee then rose and reported the bill without amendment. Ordered to be read a third time this day. It was after- wards so read, and the question taken by ayes and noes on the final passage—Carried.

Ayes 67—Noes 21.

The house went into committee of the whole on the bill authorizing a turnpike road from Mason's causeway to Alexandria. Mr. Macon in the chair.

Mr. Lewis moved to amend the bill by adding, in the seventh section, the words "county of Alexandria," so as to prevent the marshal from going out of said county to summon persons for the purpose of appraising the value of the lands through which the road should pass. This motion was lost.

Mr. Lewis moved to strike out the words "men of property and character" for the purpose of inserting "freeholders."

Mr. Blackledge moved to reconsider the vote on inserting the words "county of Alexandria." Agreed to.

The question was then taken on inserting said words and carried.

The question was then taken on striking out the words "property and reputation," and lost.

Mr. Lewis then moved to strike out the word "eighty" and insert "one hundred" feet as the breadth of the road. Lost, ayes 32, noes 41.

Mr. Lewis moved to amend the ninth section in such manner as to render the toll liable to be altered by the district court under the direction of the congress of the U. S.

Before the question was taken on this amendment the committee found themselves dissolved for want of a quorum. The chairman reported the circumstance, and the house adjourned.

Senate of the United States.

FEBRUARY 28.

The senate took up the amendments of the house of representatives to the bill to interdict the commercial intercourse be- tween the U. S. and G. Britain and France, and their dependencies, and for other pur- poses.

On the question to agree to the amend- ment to the 11th section, as follows:

Strike out the words—"And to cause to be issued, under suitable pledges and pre- cautions, letters of marque and reprisal a- gainst the nation thereafter continuing in force its unlawful edicts against the com- merce of the U. S.

It was determined in the affirmative— ayes 17, noes 14, as follow:

Yeas—Messrs. Anderson, Bayard, Brad- ley, Condit, Franklin, Gregg, Howland, Kitchell, Mathewson, Meigs, Mitchell, Parker, Pope, Reed, Smilie, Tiffin and White.

Noes—Messrs. Gaillard, Giles, Gilman, Goodrich, Hillhouse, Leib, Lloyd, Mil- ledge, Moore, Pickering, Smith of Md. Smith of N. Y. Smith of Tenn. and Tur- ner.

On the question to agree to the amend- ment in the 12th section, as follows—strike out "4th of March next" and insert "15th of March, 1809."

It was determined in the affirmative— ayes 25, noes 6, as follow:

Yeas—Messrs. Anderson, Bradley, Con- dit, Franklin, Gaillard, Giles, Gilman, Gregg, Howland, Kitchell, Leib, Matthew- son, Meigs, Milledge, Mitchell, Moore, Parker, Pope, Reed, Smith of Md. Smith of N. Y. Smith of Tenn. Sumpter, Tiffin and Turner.

Nays—Messrs. Bayard, Goodrich, Hill- house, Lloyd, Pickering and White.

When the other amendments were all a- greed to.

CHARLESTON, February 16.

EVASIONS.

We learn by an arrival, that the pilot boat schooner Tartar, which sailed from this port a short time since, in violation of the embargo laws, with a cargo of cotton, was taken pos- session of in St. Andrew's sound, by a reve- nue boat of the United States, and two men left on board in charge of her; the crew rose upon these men and carried the Tartar into Amelia sound, she was then demanded by an officer of the United States, as their prize, but before the Spanish government had time to interfere in the business, the crew again got her under way, and escaped out to sea, notwithstanding they were fired upon by the British ship Jane, lying in the sound, until they were out of the reach of her guns.

CAPTURE.

The French brig Papillon, which put into this port some days since, dismasted, captur- ed, on the 22d ult the British ship Margery and Mary, Captain Williamson, of London, from Bermuda, bound to Nassau, after a short skirmish of 15 minutes. Captain Wil- liamson had only a crew of 12 men and eight boys, although his ship mounted 16 guns. Captain W. had been in company with the American brig Charles, Field, from N. York bound to New Orleans, who was first boarded by the French brig, and who gave them in- formation of the force on board the British ship, or the French would not have thought of engaging her in his dismasted state. Capt. W. had previously supplied Captain Field with a quantity of porter, and it was a greed they should keep in company together. Af- ter taking out a considerable part of the cargo of the Margery and Mary, the French burnt her, and brought the captain and crew into this port.

From the N. Y. Evening Post, Feb. 25.

IMPORTANT.—By an arrival at Fal- mouth (Mass.) from Cadiz, a letter has been received by this day's eastern mail, dated St. Lucar, 6th Dec. A point to which mentions that since writing the preceding, the writer has received a letter from Mr. Erving, saying that he had received assu- rances from Count Florida Blanca, that the American vess. s under detention in Spain should be immediately released and their cargoes paid for: And that an express had that moment arrived from the armies which left them generally engaged, and that a de- cided victory might be considered as obtain- ed by the Spanish over the French armies.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE ABOVE WORK.

" We have had frequent occasion to speak of the diligence, good sense, and good intentions, of Mr. Murray; and we congratulate him sincerely on the success of this particular work. We announce this edition, because the alterations and additions are so considerable, that it is rendered almost a new work."

British Critic, July 1801.

" The examples which Mr. Murray has here selected, and the judicious reflections which accompany them, are such as can scarcely fail to make the best impressions, and to produce the best effects, on all who read them with attention. The present edition of this excellent publication, which has been long known and commended, is enlarged by the addition of twenty-two new characters, filling nearly one hundred pages."

Anti-Jacobin Review, Jan. 1804.

" We have received the tenth and last edition of this valuable work. The improvements made in it, will appear from the author's advertisement. We can only add to this account of the present useful volume, our hope that it will be extensively circulated among our countrymen."

The American Review & Literary Journal, for July, August & September, 1801.

" On reviewing this book, in its improved form, we find the facts unquestionable and highly interesting—the style correct and neat—and the general tendency of the work such as induces us strongly to recommend it, especially to young readers, who love entertainment mingled with instruction."

Evangelical Magazine, Oct 1801.

" The rapid sale of this small but valuable collection, has anticipated the commendation we are desirous to bestow. In an exemplification of more than seventy remarkable characters, many striking examples are exhibited which, in the quiet hour of reflection, man contribute to arrest the careless and wandering; to animate the sincere and virtuous; and to convince or discountenance those who have been unhappily led to oppose the highest truths."
